

Scale Up 2019

A Small Business Resource Fair

Are you ready to grow your Oswego business this year?

The Village of Oswego is bringing together more than a dozen organizations with resources to help your business grow in 2019. Talk to lenders about Small Business Association loans, meet with local utilities and government agencies to overcome barriers, and find free programs and services from area nonprofits to help you research, market, manage and more! This event is free for Oswego business owners to attend and includes a light breakfast.
