

The Village of Oswego has in place a Code of Ordinances that regulates what is allowed and required in the Village. The Village also approves ordinances for local government including budget approval, variances, amendments, annexation of property, development plans, and disposal of Village owned property. The complete Code of Ordinances can be found on the Village's website at www.oswegoil.org. On the Home page, click on "Municipal Codes" located under the Popular Links section. New ordinances not yet codified will be listed at the beginning of the list under the heading "Ordinances Pending Codification". For more detailed information regarding the Village's Code of Ordinances please contact the Clerk's Office at 630-554-3259.
